

Colorado Conservation Tillage Association
2008 Scholarship Winner
Michael Ann Johns

The Colorado Conservation Tillage Association selected Michael Ann Johns as their 2008 Agriculture Scholarship Winner.

Michael Ann Johns is majoring in Ag Business and Soil and Crop Science at Colorado State University in Fort Collins. She is the daughter of Mike and Kim Johns of Mitchell, Nebraska. Johns was raised on a farm in Nebraska and has always enjoyed being involved in agriculture from helping on the family farm, completing projects in 4-H and volunteering at the County Fair. She is listed among Who's Who Among High School Students and Among American's Junior Colleges. She received the All-American Scholar Award and before transferring to Colorado State University was on the Presidents List for 4 consecutive semesters at Western Nebraska Community College and is a member of the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society.

It gives the Colorado Conservation Tillage Association great pleasure to award their annual $500 Agriculture Scholarship to Michael Ann Johns.
